

I am in favor of Commissioner Powell's proposal to open broadcast ownership. Free markets work for regular goods and services; they can also work in the marketplace of ideas. Anti-trust concerns should be dealt with existing anti-trust laws. The FCC should operate within a sound economic framework, not as a result of scare tactics of those who stand to lose from their present monopoly rights.